Are there preferences for local residents and those with families?

No. The unit is available on a first come first serve basis.

Unit preferences are based on the following:

- a. There is a least one occupant per bedroom.
- b. A husband and wife, or those in a similar living arrangement, shall be required to share a bedroom. Other household members may share but shall not be required to share a bedroom.
- c. A person described in (b) shall not be required to share a bedroom if a consequence of sharing would be a severe adverse impact on his or her mental or physical health and reliable medical documentation is provided substantiating the adverse impact.
- d. A household may count an unborn child as a household member. The household must submit proof of pregnancy with the application.
- e. If the applicant is in the process of a divorce or separation, the applicant must provide proof that the divorce or separation has begun or has been finalized, as set forth in the application.

Persons with disabilities are entitled to request a reasonable accommodation of rules, policies, practices, or services or to request a reasonable modification of the housing, when such accommodations or modifications are necessary to afford the person(s) with disabilities equal opportunity to use and enjoy the housing.

Are there any restrictions?

YES. Deed restrictions are used to ensure the units are affordable for future buyers. The deed rider requires principal residency, affordability for perpetuity and prior approval from the Town and DHCD for capital improvements and refinancing. If you choose to sell your unit you must notify the town and DHCD in writing. There is a limit on the resale price. The maximum resale price is determined by DHCD using a Resale Price Multiplier, a figure calculated by taking the initial sales price and dividing it by the area median income. For example, if the initial price two bedroom sale price is $235,700 and the current area median income is $113,300, the Resale Price Multiplier would be  $$235,700/$113,300=2.08$ .

Upon resale, the Resale Price Multiplier is multiplied by the updated area median income number to determine the maximum resale price.

All selected applicants are urged to review the deed rider with their own attorney. All buyers will be provided with a copy at the time of Purchase and Sale Agreement. Email maureen@mcohousingservices.com for a copy of the deed rider.

How much money do I need to make to afford the unit?

The minimum income required to purchase is based upon an applicant's ability to secure a mortgage. Attached is a "Sample Affordability Analysis" based upon current interest rates and anticipated real estate taxes and related housing expenses.

Potential applicants will not be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religious creed, marital status, military status, disability, national origin, sex, age, ancestry, sexual preference, source of income, presence of children, or any other basis prohibited by local, state or federal law.

Lottery Process
